

DREAMCATCHER

Well, I had a dream - about the days of old
A dead man's chest, full of rum and gold...
Crystal waters - under azure skies
Me, and my crew, looked sharp for a prize...
Upon the waves -
Such a day ! ...

Looming above - the ghost of Blackbeard stands
Directing it all, with the helm in his hands...
Behind the scenes - the Devil stood
Transmitting it all, from Hollywood...
Upon the waves -
Such a day ! ...

Yeah -sirens were singin'
About the legend, the wind was bringin'...
Broken souls - on a Hellbound boat
Like a swan, dreams float upon the waves...

On a sea of doubt - and a ship of fools
To win the game ya' gotta break some rules...
According to the tale - that a dead man tells
We sailed our ship, through the gates of Hell...
And back -
Oh...I'm back...
Back upon the waves -
Oh...Such a day ! ...

And - sirens were singin'
About the legend, the wind was bringin'...
Broken souls - on a Hellbound boat
Like a swan, dreams float upon the waves...

Searchin' the darkness - for a glimmer in the night
Alone on the bridge, I caught a hope in sight...
Conducting my crew - with a sword in my hand
We sent our quarry, to the Promised Land...
Upon the waves -
Oh...Such a day ! ...

Well, lightning flashed - and I opened my eyes
Rollin' thunder, echoed the cries...
I watched the storm - encompass the bay
I swear I heard his spirit say...
"Oh...Oh Such a day!"...

And - sirens were singin'
About the legend the wind was bringin'...
Broken souls - on a Hellbound boat
And like a swan, dreams float upon the waves...

Well, I had a dream - about the days of old
A dead man's chest, full of rum and gold...
Crystal waters - under azure skies
Me, and my old crew, reunite by surprise...
Upon the waves...
